

For Immediate Release

KENYON® Responds to the Tsunami Disaster

Kenyon® is responding to the Tsunami disaster area of the Southern Asia Region and has established a coordination center in Bangkok, Thailand. An additional team will be located in Phuket, Thailand by weeks end.

Kenyon is an international leader in worldwide disaster management, providing pre-incident crisis planning and post-emergency response services on behalf of the world's foremost companies. Clients include 200 leading airline, sea, ground, and railroad carriers, as well as insurance companies, commercial and private organizations, and various local and national governments.

Depending on the client's needs, Kenyon's specific services may involve complete victim care, including identification of remains, on-site mortuary services, memorial observances and repatriation. In addition, Kenyon may provide complete personal effects recovery and identification services. Kenyon is also equipped for onsite disaster management, call and crisis intervention center operations, and family assistance services, such as Kenyon-trained crash site escorts.

Because of Kenyon's singular focus on disaster management, the company is able to offer professional crisis-prevention consulting services that are specific to the client's business. By providing proactive planning, training, and management services, Kenyon seeks to help clients better respond to disasters.

Established in 1929 in Great Britain, Kenyon gained its early reputation responding to dirigible explosions and WWII bomb raids. Now in its 75th year, Kenyon has responded to more than 300 incidents throughout the world. Kenyon maintains offices and deployable teams in Houston, Texas (United States), London, England and Sydney, Australia. The company's worldwide presence allows it to respond promptly to disasters and to be onsite in a matter of hours.

Kenyon's worldwide resources, industry best practices, and extensive disaster response experience ensures clients that everything possible is being done before, during and after a crisis. These comprehensive services allow clients to focus on their core businesses.

Kenyon is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Service Corporation International, Inc., Houston, Texas.

For more information about Kenyon, please contact Lowell A. Briggs, at +1 (281) 872-6074; and visit our website: www.KenyonInternational.com.

###