

KENYON NAMES NEW HEAD OF HUMAN SUPPORT SERVICES

Houston, Texas, 2007—Kenyon International Emergency Services has named Salvador Velasco to director of human support services.

In his new position, Salvador will be responsible for all aspects of Kenyon's Human Support Services to include family assistance, coordination of mental health support and training of Special Assistance Team members. Salvador will reside in Houston and will report to Jerry Novosad, vice president of operations.

Velasco joins Kenyon from a 17 year career at Grupo Taca where he was most recently the family assistance and emergency response coordinator, a position he had held since March 2000. He is a graduate of the Catholic University of Puerto Rico with a major in psychology.

In making the announcement, Jerry Novosad said "Salvador brings an extensive, real-world logistical and coordinating experience with a major airline to Kenyon; during his time at TACA he went through numerous training programs to keep himself at the cutting edge of a very critical area for Kenyon and for Kenyon clients. He has also responded to three airplane accidents which is experience that cannot be obtained in a classroom."

About Kenyon International

Kenyon is an international leader in worldwide disaster management, providing pre-incident crisis planning and post-emergency response services on behalf of the world's foremost companies. Privately owned, Kenyon remains the only firm in its business with a hundred year history, comprehensive resources, and experience in every type of mass fatality accident including aviation disasters, natural disaster, war and terror attacks. Headquartered in Houston, Texas, it has offices and facilities in Sydney, Australia, London, UK, and Hong Kong.

For more information, please contact:

Kenyon International: 281-872-6074 or Alliance Public Relations (Jerry Hendin: 425-442-5565 or jerry-alliancepr@qwest.net or Jeanette Ang: 425-753-1888 or jeanetteangpr@hotmail.com)