

KENYON LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE AND UPDATES LOGO

July 1, 2008, Houston, Texas— To better reflect the breadth of its service offerings, Kenyon International Emergency Services has launched a new website and updated its logo.

According to Robert Jensen, Kenyon president and CEO, said the changes “reinforce the richness of our products and services and of our worldwide presence. Since the company was privatized in October, 2007,” Jensen said, “Kenyon has continued to align its marketing materials to reinforce our dominance in the marketplace.”

The new website includes a media center which provides recent press releases, articles and video clips on the company as well as issues important to Kenyon customers including guides to operational and consulting services, overviews of information and support systems, and useful information on the various stages of incident response.

The logo which uses a stylized graphic of the world, the Kenyon name in bold letters has been updated to include the subscript “International Emergency Services and “A Worldwide Disaster Management Company.
