

Kenyon International Emergency Services Assists in Air India Express Incident

(May 22, 2010) Kenyon International Emergency Services has deployed a team of crisis management professionals to assist Air India Express after one of its aircraft crashed on arrival at Mangalore airport in India.

Kenyon will be providing advice and counsel to the airline to help with the accident response, disaster human services experts will assist the families of the passengers and disaster recovery specialists will assist with recovery, identification, repatriation of human remains and the return of their personal belongings.

About Kenyon International

Kenyon is an international leader in worldwide disaster management, providing pre-incident crisis planning and post-emergency response services on behalf of the world's foremost companies. Privately owned, Kenyon remains the only firm in its business with a hundred year history, comprehensive resources, and experience in every type of mass fatality accident including aviation disasters, natural disaster, war and terror attacks. Headquartered in Houston, Texas, it has offices and facilities in Sydney, Australia, London, UK, and Hong Kong.

For more information please contact:

Mario Gomez, Director of Corporate Communications – (281) 872-6074 or 832-641-7478 (Cell) or e-mail at gomezm@kenyoninternational.com

##