

EUROPEAN REGIONS AIRLINES – GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

8-10 October 2008, Manchester, England- At the annual General Assembly of the ERA, Kenyon's CEO, Robert Jensen, using lessons learned from recent incident responses, provided the delegates with a frank perspective on the challenges of managing emergencies in an environment of varying standards. Jerry Allen, VP Planning and Training, provided a technical advice session on the preparations and management of a table-top emergency exercise. Additionally, Kenyon delivered a specialist workshop on the need for emergency response standards in aviation.

ERA released their updated Emergency Planning Handbook. This revised addition contains new material; draws on new information will greatly assist ERA member airlines Crisis Management Teams. Kenyon supported the revision of this handbook and again applauds ERA for proactive approach and leadership role in the field of crisis management.
