

YOLANDE KHOURY KENYON CRISIS COMMUNICATIONS ASSOCIATE

Yolande began her career as a TV news reporter, anchor and producer before becoming News Chief Editor. She has travelled extensively to produce and present various documentaries, international events coverage and interviews with international personalities, working for different channels in Lebanon, UAE, Qatar and Yemen.

Yolande was a lecturer on TV Journalism for several Lebanese universities and has worked as the Communications Advisor and Foreign Press Attachée for Lebanese P.M., Najib Mikati, especially during his mission to the UN.

Due to her diverse media and communications experience, she is also renowned for her coaching and training of Arab personalities and businessmen, as well as anchors and reporters.

