

MADONNA WALSH

KENYON CRISIS COMMUNICATIONS ASSOCIATE

Madonna joined Kenyon in 2017. She is a global communications expert with over 20 years' experience, including 15 years leading crisis communications and business continuity teams in the U.S., Europe and the Middle East.

She has conducted public relations and internal communications activities on six continents, working across multiple practices and industries, including aerospace and transportation. In 2013, she led the communications efforts for the global partnership between Qatar Airways and F.C. Barcelona, and the airline's acceptance into the oneworld Alliance.

Her skillset includes change and transformation communications for which she has conducted programmes for Transport for London and a global pharmaceutical company.

